

Stephen L. Griss, AIA, NCARB, LEED AP

Education:

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, New York
1972 Bachelor of Science, Building Science
1973 Bachelor of Architecture, Professional Degree

Educational Honors:

Member: Tau Beta Pi Academic Honorary Society
New York State Society of Architects Matthew W. Del Gaudio Award
Yearly Academic Awards in Architecture
Co-winner second prize in national design contest sponsored by the American Registered Architects Society for the design of a children's zoo.

Professional Registration:

States of Connecticut and Florida
National Council of Architectural Registration Board
LEED AP – Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design Accredited Professional

Professional Experience:

1973-1974 Matthew J. Warshauer, AIA
Elmsford, New York
Staff designer and draftsman - commercial and multi-family projects.

1974-1977 Malcolm Pirnie, Inc., Consulting Environmental Engineers
White Plains, New York
Architect and Job Captain for numerous industrial and municipal waste water and solid waste treatment facilities.

1977-1978 Russell, Gibson and Von Dohlen, Inc.
Farmington, Connecticut
Project Designer for the Otis Engineering Center in the TAC Industrial Park in Farmington, Connecticut and design assistant and job captain for numerous corporate office projects.

1978-Present Sole Proprietor of Stephen Griss Associates / Architecture
This architectural firm has served the Northern Fairfield County area of Connecticut and Southern Florida in the area of commercial, industrial and corporate building and interior design. Mr. Griss has been involved in a large range of projects from contemporary private homes, to municipal libraries, historic preservation and restoration projects, school and fire station additions and renovations to large corporate headquarters, medical office buildings and facilities and numerous commercial properties.

Special Abilities:

Building and interior design.
Graphic skills and Presentation.
CAD expertise in AutoCAD.
Construction document organization and production.
Specification writing.
Project Administration.

Other Interests:

Member of Bethel Historical Society
Former President of Bethel, CT and Danbury, CT Exchange Clubs
Art and Architectural History
Reading, History, Photography and raising Orchids
Travel